Update to Knoxville's One Year Plan

Knoxville, Tennessee – January 5, 2021 – The annual update of the City of Knoxville's One Year Plan has begun, and the public is encouraged to participate. The One Year Plan serves as the foundation for zoning decisions and is based on the land-use goals, objectives, and policies found in the City's long-range plans.

A Zoom meeting has been scheduled to give community members the opportunity to review and discuss recommended changes to the plan. The meeting will be held on January 28, 2021, at 5:30 p.m. It will begin with a presentation covering all geographic areas of the city, followed by an open discussion.

The presentation will include:

- A general definition describing the One Year Plan,
- Plan amendments since the 2020 update, and
- Illustrations of differences between permitted land uses and zoning.

Knoxville-Knox County Planning

Knoxville-Knox County Planning (formerly Knoxville-Knox County Metropolitan Planning Commission) was established in 1956 by Knoxville and Knox County as the agency responsible for comprehensive county-wide planning and administration of zoning and land subdivision regulations and remains so today (except for the town of Farragut). Funding comes primarily from city and county appropriations and from federal grants for specific studies. The agency prepares and adopts a general plan, reviews subdivision regulations and site plans, prepares and recommends zoning ordinances and maps to the Knox County Commission and Knoxville City Council, reviews proposed zoning amendments, and prepares a capital improvements plan for the City of Knoxville.
